Steven Feist Joins LogistiCare as Colorado Operations Manager

ATLANTA -- LogistiCare announced today that Steven Feist has joined the company as its Colorado operations manager. He will be based in Centennial, Colo., and will report to Lisa Leach, corporate operations director in Atlanta.

Feist comes to LogistiCare with more than eighteen years of professional experience, including fourteen years in emergency medical transportation operations. He will be responsible for managing client relationships, overseeing contract compliance and ensuring that financial goals for LogistiCare's Colorado operations are met. Feist also will work closely with members of the corporate management team and other operations directors.

For the last one-and-a-half years Feist worked as a self-employed consultant, providing business planning, operations management and acquisition guidance to numerous clients. Prior to that, he was the director of operations for Alpha Therapeutics Corporation in Denver. Feist also has seven years experience with American Medical Response (AMR) in several management roles, most recently as operations manager. Before that he was with Reed Ambulance for seven years before it was acquired by AMR.

Feist holds a bachelor of science degree in business management from the University of Phoenix and is planning to begin work on his master's degree next month.

About LogistiCare

Headquartered in Atlanta, LogistiCare is the nation's leading provider of specialized transportation network management. The company's government clients include state Medicaid agencies, school boards, transit and paratransit authorities. Health care sector clients include hospital systems and many of the nation's largest managed care organizations.

With its market innovation, proprietary software, and proven record of creating budget stability and program integrity, LogistiCare is well known as the leader in improving non-emergency transportation programs. On an annual basis, the company manages a national network of more than 1,750 transportation companies that deliver more than 13 million trips to customers annually.
