Thomas E. Oram Joins LogistiCare as Chief Financial Officer

ATLANTA – LogistiCare announced today that Thomas E. Oram has joined the company as its chief financial officer.

Oram comes to LogistiCare from ValueOptions Inc./FHC Health Systems Inc. (FHC) in Norfolk, Va., where he has been for the past eight years. He has a wealth of experience, having served in two capacities: executive vice president and chief financial officer for ValueOptions and executive vice president and treasurer with FHC. ValueOptions is the second largest managed behavioral health organization in the United States with contracts covering 23 million lives and generating more than $1.4 billion in annual revenue.

As the CFO at ValueOptions, Oram was responsible for all financial functions, including accounting operations, budgeting and planning, reporting and analysis, underwriting and pricing and taxation. In his role as treasurer for FHC, Oram worked with FHC's CFO to manage all lending relationships as well as provided support to the CFO in managing relationships with ratings agencies and investors. He also assisted the CFO with capital structure analysis and strategy.

Prior to joining FHC in October 2000, Oram served as the assistant treasurer for Newport News Shipbuilding Inc. Oram also worked as a corporate finance associate and treasury and cash management consultant with Ernst & Young LLP; and, he's been a trade analyst and portfolio accountant with Twenty-First Securities Corporation and State Street Bank & Trust respectively.

Oram has a Master of Business Administration-Finance degree from Northeastern University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from the State University of New York at Buffalo.
